The Court finds, after a hearing upon notification by the probation officer, the offender is in violation of the conditions of release as set forth in this Judgment order and modifies the terms/conditions as follows:

1. The defendant shall reside for a period of 4 months at a Residential Reentry Center (RRC) as directed by the probation officer and shall observe the rules of that facility.
2. The defendant shall participate in a substance abuse treatment program at the direction of the probation officer, which may include no more than eight drug tests per month. The defendant shall abstain from the use of all intoxicants, including alcohol, while participating in a substance abuse treatment program. The defendant is responsible for paying a portion of the fees of substance abuse testing and/or treatment.
3. Upon the finding of the probation officer the defendant is no longer in need of residential placement, is in compliance with the terms of his supervision, and does not appear a risk of violating his terms of supervision, then, the probation officer may seek input from the United States Attorney's Office, and memo the Court seeking a modification to release him from the Residential Reentry Center (RRC).
